

www.MissouriFamilyNetwork.net
2010 General Election Guide Printout

Missouri State Supreme Court – Zel Fischer – vote “YES”.

Appellate District Courts: (Your local ballot will only have 1 of these 3 districts judges.)

Eastern – Mary Kathryn Hoff – “NO”.

Southern – Robert S. Barney – “NO”, Don E. Burrell – “YES”.

Western – Alok Ahula – “NO”, Victor C. Howard – “NO”, Karen King Mitchell – “NO”, Mark D. Pfeiffer – “NO”, James Edward Welsh – “YES”.

There are an additional 71 state judges, as well as many local municipal judges, that will be on ballots across the state, only a few may be in your ballot booth. For further information and research on your local judges see earlier MFN E@lerts or go to www.MissouriFamilyNetwork.net (see maps of Appellate Districts or Circuits Courts online at <http://www.courts.mo.gov/> or see previous MFN E@lerts.)

5 Statewide Questions On Everyone’s Ballot.

Constitutional Amendment 1 Hold County Assessors Accountable Vote YES

Constitutional Amendment 2 Support Our Disabled Former POWs Vote YES

Constitutional Amendment 3 Prohibit Sales Taxes on Real Estate Vote YES

Proposition A Let Voters Decide on Their Own Local Income Taxes Vote YES

Proposition B “B” is Bad - Help Stop Animal Rights Extremism Vote NO

For more information on Proposition B and its deception on dogs see the www.Metrovoice.net articles exposing HSUS. Also visit The Alliance for Truth www.thealliancefortruth.com and/or Missourians for Animal Care at www.missourifac.com. Additionally MFN has a special E@lert focused on ‘B’.

For a complete analysis of each of the five statewide questions refer back to the Special MFN E@lerts sent out earlier or visit www.MissouriFamilyNetwork.net. Each question is analyzed according to the full legal text of the Amendment or Proposition, not just a summary question (which is all you see in the voting booth).

Federal, State, and Local Candidates

Pro-Life Voting Guides should be readily available no matter where you live in Missouri. If you have questions or problems discerning the Candidates or Questions on your ballot call us at MFN at 314-971-2477 or 573-483-2007. Election day is hectic so try both numbers if one is too busy.

Remember - Voting is a Blessing not a Burden – it is a Responsibility not a Right!

Use the back side of this sheet to make whatever notes you need to be prepared before going to the polls on November 2nd. You may have local ballot questions, judges, and public offices specific only to your area. A local sample ballot is printed in most newspapers or available at: <https://mcvr.mo.gov/elections/voterlookup/>